(c) Additional manpower and equipment are sanctioned on the basis of the projection made by CISF whenever a new induction, or augmentation of an existing unit, is approved.

Community policing to control crime

3175. SHRI B.J. PANDA:
MS. MABEL REBELLO:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Centre proposes to promote community policing to control crime and maintain law and order;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) the status of modernization of police force in different States with Central grant and how far has it controlled crime in different regions; and

(d) the details of Central help that has been given to Orissa for modernization of their police force during 2006-07 fiscal year?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SHRIPRAKASH JAISWAL): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) Ministry of Home Affairs set up a Committee of Experts to draft a new Police Act to replace the Police Act 1861 which submitted the draft model Police Act in October, 2006. The draft Model Police Act, inter-alla, contains provision of community participation in policing in Metropolitan cities and in respect of Village Guards, Village Defence party and Community Liaison Groups in rural areas. The Draft Model Act has been sent to the State Governments for consideration and appropriate action.

(c) The Scheme for Modernization of State Police Forces (MPF) is an important initiative of the Ministry of Home Affairs towards Modernization of State Police forces, especially for meeting the emerging challenges to internal security in the form of naxalism, terrorism, etc. "Police" and "law and order" are State subjects as per the VII Schedule to the Constitution and as such it is the responsibility of States to modernize and adequately equip its police forces for meeting challenges to law and order. The Central Government has supplemented their efforts in a large way in controlling crime.

(d) During the financial year 2006-07, grant-in-aid of Rs. 38.00 crore was released to the State Government of Orissa under MPF Scheme.

SIMI training camps

3176. SHRI VIJAY J. DARDA: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the recently arrested Student Islamic Movement of India (SIMI) activists in Madhya Pradesh have revealed that the banned organization had five training camps in the jungle of Khargone District and they are executing their operations across the country;

(b) if so, whether the role of active women SIMI activists indulged in motivating children to join the organization have also been noticed by the security/intelligence agencies;

(c) if so, the details thereof; and

(d) the steps proposed by Government to check the nefarious designs of SIMI activists across the country?

THE MINISTRY OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SHRIPRAKASH JAISWAL): (a) No Sir, However, SIMI's activists are active in a number of States of the country.

(b) No, Sir.

(c) Does not arise.

(d) The SIMI has been declared as an unlawful association on 7th February, 2008. Appropriate action has been taken by the various State Government against the activists of concerned organizations.

Federal Investigative Agency

3177. SHRI GIREESH KUMAR SANGHI: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether in a bid to crack down on terror networks and curb increasing Naxal violence through a coordinated nationwide onslaught, Prime Minister has decided to aggressively push for the concept of the federal investigative agency with Chief Ministers of all States in a recently convened meeting;

(b) if so, what was the outcome of the meeting;

(c) whether any central body to combat terror in the country has been considered by the Chief Ministers; and

(d) if so, what is the final decision taken and by when it is likely to be implemented?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SHRIPRAKASH JAISWAL): (a) to (d) The issue of putting a mechanism in place to enable investigation of certain types of terrorism related and other offences having inter-State and international linkages by a Central agency has been under consideration and discussion with the State Governments for some time. This issue was also discussed in the Meeting of Chief Ministers on Internal Security held under the Chairmanship of the Prime Minister on 20th December, 2007, in which inter-alia, the setting up of a Consultative Mechanism to decide, on a case to case basis, whether investigations may be taken up by a Central agency, and have collaborative arrangements in the framework of a concurrent jurisdication, was suggested. It was, decided that the Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) would seek the comments of the State Governments in the matter. Accordingly, the MHA has written to all the States seeking their comments, so that a consensus could be developed in the matter. It has, inter alia, been clarified that the proposed mechanism envisages close coordination between all the Central and State agencies.

Cases of bomb blasts

†3178. SHRI LALIT KISHORE CHATURVEDI: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) the number of public places where there were bomb explosions between monsoon and budget sessions of Parliament and the loss of life and property suffered as a result thereof;

†Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.